FOREWORD

To record the progress and achievements of the past two years and to portray the impressions of the spirit of our campus has been our aim. If in turning through these pages pleasant memories are brought to you that make your acquaintances here lasting intimacies that will stand the test of time, our purpose will have been achieved, our fondest hopes fulfilled.

ST ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

REV. RANDALL ALEXANDER McLEOD

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and thirty-three of Presbyterian Junior College, do dedicate this, the first volume of THE BAGPIPE to the memory of Rev. Randall Alexander McLeod. It was largely through his hard work and earnest effort that this institution was established.

It is with sincere hearts that we perform this act of devotion to one who deserves the respect and admiration of the entire student body, faculty, and admirers of Christian education.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Presbyterian Junior College wishes to express its appreciation to the student body for the publication of this the first volume of the BAGPIPE. We believe that this modest but typical production exemplifies the desire on the part of the student body to continue its forward look, at the same time taking due cognizance of the economic condition prevalent in our country.

We wish to thank the people who have by prayer and means made our school possible, and the patrons who have sent to us a type of student that has challenged our enthusiasm and has made for our school such an enviable record.

These four enthusiastic Christian laymen have been largely instrumental in a material way in making our school possible.

The honor system is administered by the Student Council. This organization, while without legal authority, is the representative of the whole student body in its dealing with individuals, and it freely exercises this social authority in dealing with refractory cases and enforcing the honor system. All of its decisions, of course, being subject to the ultimate authority of the Faculty, as a court of final appeal and review. Every student is under pledge to the Student Government to report to the Council every instance of conduct on the part of a student unbecoming a gentleman and a student of Presbyterian Junior College.

Officers for the past year were: Thomas Sinclair, President; R. B. Wicker, Vice President; and Oliver Cross, Secretary.

The Y. M. C. A. is the student's closest contact with active Christian service at P. J. C. Each year a wider range of opportunity is opened up and the Student Christian Association has endeavored to meet those challenges as they have appeared.

This year the importance of the problem and the practice of prayer has received special attention. The various prayer groups have been well attended, and the value of these meetings can scarcely be estimated.

The usual series of evangelistic services were limited somewhat this year, but the two that were held were very helpful and inspiring. During the year, a professor in one of the senior colleges was brought in who led a round table discussion of the problem of vocational guidance which proved to be of great practical value.

The staff of the BAGPIPE has attempted to carry on the tradition of P. J. C., that of building tradition for the future. This is the first yearbook of our College, and we sincerely hope that we have created something that will last through the years, and we believe that this custom will be carried out by the succeeding classes.

The making of this book has not been altogether easy for our staff, inexperienced as it was at the start, but we have had the satisfaction of seeing our product grow little by little; and it is with grateful hearts that we express our gratitude for the trust that our fellow-students have placed in us, and we hope that our efforts may be worthy of this trust.

NATE ANDREWS (Captain)

Quarter

Nate was a triple-threat back whose specialty was his off-tackle play which netted many a yard this year. It was his return of a punt that enabled his team to defeat Lees-McRae on Thanksgiving Day.

"BULL" CROWELL

End

"Bull" was a smooth, consistent player, and many a half-back was stopped by him in their attempted runs around his end.

"ROOSTER" HITT

Half

Hitt's punting shifted the odds more than once, and he could put the pep into the team in a jiffy. A triple-threat man—that's Hitt.

"TOM" DAVIS

Guard

A tower of strength in every line play, Tom was right in there all the time. He was never down until he was out, and he was hard to put out.

BADGER JOHNSON

Guard

Probably the best offensive guard in the state, Badger played in the enemy's backfield half the time. He messed up many an otherwise perfect play by his driving offensive.

CHARLIE BROWN

Tackle

Charlie took his football seriously, and because of this many an opponent's party was turned into a day of mourning, for them. He was one of the hardest-fighting men on the team.

DON WILLIAMSON (Captain-elect, '33)

Halfback

One of the fastest, neatest little backs in the conference, Don, as '33 captain, will be heard from next year in the same way which has shattered opposing lines time after time. His specialty is broken-field running. Watch him go!

"TURK" FAIRCLOTH

Fullback

As a blocker and all-round hard scrapper and ball-toter, "Turk" at full is hard to beat. He's got many a football trick behind that sly grin.

HEYWOOD BARDEN

Center

Heywood Barden, diminutive center, furnished little flashy display, but he was right there on every play, "little but loud." He will be a mainstay of the line next year.

"Sop" CAMPBELL

Tackle

"Sop," our heaviest linesman put more into it than his weight. He has blasted the hopes of many an ambitious opposing back.

JOE MUSE

End

"Hit 'em and grin," that's Joe. He could spot a play a mile ahead, and kept his eyes open all the time. He was as dependable as he was spectacular.

JOE SAVAGE

Halfback

In Savage we have a fast and shifty back who can make his speed count. Heavy opponents frequently found themselves grasping empty air behind the elusive Joe.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

First Row: SMITH, GLEN, FAIRCLOTH, TURK, WILLIAMSON, DON, RUSSELL, NEALSON.

Second Row: JORDAN, CLYDE, NORTHROP, DAN, TOLAR, N. S.

Third Row: DAVIS, TOM (Manager); HENDERSON, G. P. (Coach).

BASKETBALL

With three regulars of the preceding year reporting at the beginning of the season, Coach Henderson had a strong nucleus around which to build his team. Williamson at forward, Townsend at center, Haskett at guard, together with Smith, a reserve from the previous year, Cole, Northrop, Jordan, Faircloth, Tolar, and Russell formed the squad.

The squad was reduced during the season by influenza, and this fact, together with the lack of a suitable court on which to practice, made the season a somewhat disappointing one in the matter of Junior College games.

The new gymnasium, made possible largely through the efforts of President Matheson, is now nearing completion and it will be ready for use at the opening of the fall term, thus making possible early practice. Thus with our new gymnasium as a basis upon which we can work, we are looking forward to a most successful season.

BASEBALL

This season's baseball practice began with but four letter men returning. Tom Davis, catcher; "Old Lady" Palmer, a left-handed pitcher; "Bird" Williamson, changing from second to short; and "Rooster" Hitt, the prancing third baseman formed the nucleus around which Coach Henderson will build this year's team. Russell and Fairecloth, infielders; Savage, Jackson, W. Britt, Cox, and Palmer, outfielders; Burgess, Cox and J. Britt, right-handers, and Russell, a left-hander, completed the squad.

The season was opened by playing M. P. C. I. at home. This game was lost mainly on errors, the score being 5-3. The next two games, with Campbell and a return game with M. P. C. I. were lost by the scores of — and 6-1, when the batting attack failed.

However, in the opening game of a series with E. C. T. C., the team found its batting eye, but lost a slugging duel 10-9 in the ninth inning. Hitt with two triples, a double and a single was the hitting star of the day. The game on the following day was somewhat of a contrast. Burgess, starting his first game of the season, twirled a great game to let down E. C. T. C. 6-1, allowing only one hit and no runs before he was forced out of the game in the seventh inning by an injured ankle.

BUILDERS of DREAMS

Visions created by the imagination precede the achievement. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the Edwards & Broughton Company to cooperate with the Bag Pipe staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the Edwards & Broughton Company.

To those staffs desiring complete cooperation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
